Perdue Reappoints Special Superior Court Judge Trawick

RALEIGH - Gov. Bev Perdue has reappointed Gary E. Trawick, for a five year term as a Special Superior Court Judge.

“Judge Trawick is a distinguished and valuable member of the judiciary. I am pleased to appoint him to his third term as a Special Superior Court Judge,” Perdue said. “His outstanding work handling and helping to resolve complex cases will continue with this reappointment.”

Judge Trawick began his judicial career in 1990 when he was elected to the newly created Superior Court seat in the 5th Judicial District. In 1998, Governor James B. Hunt appointed him as a Special Superior Court Judge, and he was reappointed by Governor Mike Easley in 2005.

Trawick received his undergraduate and law degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
